

Directions: There are images of both living and nonliving things below. Read and answer the following questions for each image. Then, answer these two questions: What do humans do to calm down? What do you do to calm down?

What is it?

Does it breathe?

Does it move on its own?

Is it hard or soft?

Does it get angry or sad? How can you tell?

